Course Development Grant

Milton Gaither (Professor of Education) to develop a new Honors Pluralism course relating education and national identity.

Valerie Lemmon (Assistant Professor of Psychology) to develop a new required writing course for Psychology majors.

David Owens (Assistant Professor of Computer Science) to revise and repackage course materials for the course on Interactive 3D Graphics and make them available as a free online tutorial.

David Weaver-Zercher (Professor of American Religious History) to revise two pluralism courses: Religion Pluralism in America and Christianity in the United States

Stella Ye (Assistant Professor of Mandarin Chinese) to finish designing the curriculum for two new upper level Chinese language courses.

Cross-Cultural Grant

Jan Dormer (Assistant Professor of TESOL) to visit schools and lodging sites for a new course in Indonesia.

Scholarship Grant

Kelly Cheeseman (Associate Professor of Criminal Justice) to conduct survey research examining the pathways that lead individuals toward and away from pornography use.

John Fea (Associate Professor of American History) to continue research for a book about the role of Presbyterians in the American Revolution.

Bernardo Michael (Associate Professor of History) to collect and catalog historical documents from the National Archives of Nepal.

Jenell Paris (Professor of Sociology and Anthropology) to develop an archaeology laboratory in the Oakes Museum of Natural History.

Timothy Schoettle (Associate Professor of Philosophy) to work on a paper on the inverted spectrum.

Jennifer Thomson (Assistant Professor of Biopsychology) to conduct research investigating the relationship between prayer and stress-related physiological measurements.

Cynthia Wells (Assistant Professor of Higher Education) to complete three chapters of a monograph on the purpose and significance of General Education.

Service Learning Faculty Grant

Rachel Cornacchio (Associate Professor of Music Education) to develop a course where students will integrate musical play into work with young mothers and their infants.

Raeann Hamon (Professor of Family Science and Gerontology) to implement and evaluate the intergenerational service learning component in the Sociology of Aging course.

Teaching Enhancement Grant

Leah Clarke (Assistant Professor of Counseling) to participate in a cross-cultural counseling experience in Malawi that focuses on multicultural competencies and international counseling practices.

Marti Derr (Associate Professor of Nursing) to complete advanced graduate work in health care ethics.

Robert Reyes (Professor of Human Development and Family Science) to complete a course on SPSS statistical analysis.

Anita Voelker (Associate Professor of Education) to explore the use of iPads in two different education venues.

Service Learning Student Intern

Raeann Hamon / Madison Brinser

Smith Scholar Interns (professor/student)

Crystal Downing / Alison Williams

John Fea / Brianna LaCasse

Bernardo Michael / Elijah Kane

David Pettigrew / Megan Piette

Anita Voelker / Danielle Morabito