Course Development Grant

Erin Boyd-Soisson (Associate Professor of Human Development and Family Science) – to revise two HDFS courses.
Carol Buckley (Assistant Professor of Math Curriculum Climate and Instruction) – to implement a video project for enhancing the teacher preparation for the “flipping” of the classroom.
Jan Dormer (Assistant Professor of TESOL) – to develop an experiential learning component of the initial TESOL course.
Amy Ginck (Senior Lecturer in Modern Languages) – to revise 2 traditional and online SPAN courses.
Jodie Haak (Associate Professor of Exercise Science) – to develop a new upper level APHS course: Applied Human Physiology.
Abaz Kryemadhi (Assistant Professor of Mathematical Sciences) – development of a new Physics course for the Physics degree.
Douglas Miller (Professor of Health and Exercise Science) – to revise and repackage a new course to meet external accreditation requirements for ATED and HPED.
Emerson Powery (Professor of Biblical Studies) – to develop a new BIBL course: The Bible and Slavery.
Meg Ramey (Assistant Professor of Biblical and Religious Studies) – to develop a new BIBL course: Jesus in Fiction & in Film.
Roseann Sach (Professor of Chemistry) – to revise 2 traditional and online SPAN courses.
Jodie Haak (Associate Professor of Exercise Science) – to develop a new APHS course: Applied Human Physiology.
Abaz Kryemadhi (Assistant Professor of Mathematical Sciences) – development of a new Physics course for the Physics degree.
Douglas Miller (Professor of Health and Exercise Science) – to revise and repackage a new course to meet external accreditation requirements for ATED and HPED.

Cross-Cultural Grant

Niklas Hellgren (Assistant Professor of Physics) and Alison Noble (Assistant Professor of Chemistry) – to explore the enhancement of the Scandinavian cross cultural course by adding Iceland to the current experience.

Scholarship Grant

Heather Barto (Assistant Professor of Counseling) and Leah Clark (Assistant Professor of Counseling) – to develop a survey to determine the trends in online counselor education.
Jean Corey (Associate Professor of English) – a study to investigate the humanities and public engagement in Kenya.
John Fea (Professor of American History) – to conduct research on the Presbyterians in New Jersey during the American Revolution.
Erik Forst (Assistant Professor of Music) – to work on a project (commissioning and performance) by the Spectralist composer David Luke.
Stephen Gallaher (Associate Professor of Christian Ministries) and Shelly Skinner (Assistant Professor of Christian Ministries) – to study the factors that contribute to a robust and sustainable local church ministry.
John Harles (Professor of Politics) – to work on the completion of a book manuscript.
Obed Mfum-Mensah (Associate Professor of Education) – to study strengths and challenges for integrating special education in Kenya.
Bernardo Michael (Professor of History) – to archive research in South Asia on Anglican educationist and activist Charles Freer Andrews.
Larry Mylin (Professor of Biology) – to study the malaria parasite and train laboratory personnel in Zambia.
David Pettegrew (Associate Professor of History) – to conduct an archaeological study at a museum in Cyprus and prepare a monograph.
Gladys Robalino (Associate Professor of Spanish) – a study of the adaptations of Don Quijote for the U.S. stage during the last two years.
Damian Savarino (Assistant Professor of Music) – to commission a new set of songs for bass voice, trumpet and piano.
Bill Stowman (Professor of Music) – to produce a compact disc for the trumpet and accompanying instruments.
Cynthia Wells (Assistant Professor of Higher Education) – to conduct a qualitative research project on the outcomes of the Messiah College employee participation in the Civil Rights Bus Tour.
Kate Whiteley (Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice) – to conduct a study at a women’s prison to help understand women who perpetrate violence.

Teaching Enhancement Grant

Marti Derr (Associate Professor of Nursing) – to participate in a course series to enhance content in the MSN program.
Larry Lake (Associate Professor of Writing) – to attend the Gettysburg Review Conference for writers and integrate techniques to improve writing at Messiah College.
Debra Loop (Associate Professor of Nursing) – to help redesign the simulation experiences throughout the nursing curriculum.
Jenell Paris (Professor of Sociology and Anthropology) – to explore vocation in Sociology and Anthropology for development of content for majors and general education courses.
Doug Phillippy (Associate Professor of Mathematics) and Brian Swartz (Assistant Professor of Engineering) – to develop primer texts for course sections and facilitate a faculty discussion series to enhance teaching methods.
Lijuan (Stella) Ye (Assistant Professor of Mandarin Chinese) – to explore the use of technology in Chinese language courses.

Smith Scholar Interns (professor/student)

Carol Buckley/Brianne Loop
Crystal Downing/Mary Finch
Milton Gaither/Fiona Tranquillo
Raeann Hamon/Katie Bull
Angela Hare/Rebecca Curtis
Larry Mylin/Lauren Wilson
Donald Murk/Carly Day
David Pettegrew/Kelly Henderson
Tim Schoettle/Nickolas Sooy
Bill Stowman/Tyler Cornelius