Course Development Grant

Heather Dravk (Senior Lecturer in French) - to redesign the French 101 & 102 courses so they align more closely with QuEST objectives.

Cross-Cultural Grant

Jan Dormer (Assistant Professor of TESOL) – to visit several sites in Brazil and then develop a proposal for a Brazil cross-cultural course.
Raeann Hamon (Professor of Family Science and Gerontology) – to visit the Bahamas in order to select home visit sites and update the itinerary for a course that has not been offered since 2007.

Scholarship Grant

David Dzaka (Associate Professor of English) – for academic work in Ghana that will culminate in a textbook on writing instruction that will be used in west Africa.
Donald Forsythe (Professor of Art) – to frame 10 new artworks that will appear in two exhibitions.
Todd Goranson (Associate Professor of Music) – for the production of a CD featuring new music for saxophone and bassoon.
Kathy Hettinga (Professor of Art) – to attend an artists’ workshop that will facilitate completion of her next artist book.
Douglas Jacobsen (Professor of Church History and Theology) – for study of historic and contemporary religious practices of several Asian nations.
Obed Mfum-Mensah (Associate Professor of Education) – to conduct research in Kenya about mechanisms for mentoring student teachers involved in distance learning.
David Pettegrew (Associate Professor of History) – to implement a program of ground-penetrating radar at two Roman coastal cities in Cyprus.
Nathan Skulstad (Assistant Professor of Film and Digital Media) – to produce a documentary film focused on spiritual journeys of female prison inmates who are incarcerated for life.
Jennifer Thomson (Assistant Professor of Biopsychology) – to conduct a research project about differing attitudes toward post-traumatic stress disorder held by veterans versus non-veterans.
Wanda Thuma-McDermond (Associate Professor of Nursing) – to attend a workshop that will help in her exploration of ways to curb violence in the city of Harrisburg.

Teaching Enhancement Grant

Crystal Downing (Professor of English and Film Studies) – to visit places in Italy that were visited by British Romantics for a new component of the literature course she teaches.
Carol McGinnis (Assistant Professor of Counseling) – to update the graduate course on Psychopathology & Diagnosis by preparing case quizzes.
Meg Ramey (Assistant Professor of Biblical Studies) – to participate in archaeological research on the island of Cyprus that will enrich lectures in several general education and Bible classes.
Lijuan (Stella) Ye (Assistant Professor of Mandarin Chinese) - to visit several travel sites and churches in Hangzhou, China and fine-tune the China Cross Cultural Course.

Smith Scholar Interns (professor/student)

Carol Buckley/Aubrey Werley
Crystal Downing/Elena Patton
Milton Gaither/Katie Wingert & Robby Lyon
Raeann Hamon/Annette Kolb

Bernardo Michael/Emily LaBianca
David Pettegrew/Cassandra Baddorf
Jennifer Thomson/Paige Hopkins
Kate Whiteley/Megan Hess