Course Development Grant

Melinda Burchard (Associate Professor of Education) - to develop a new course: Communication Disorders, EDSP 385.
Jan Dormer (Associate Professor of TESOL) - to develop a new course in the Graduate Program in Education: EDME 546.
Amy Ginck (Senior Lecturer in Modern Languages) - to revise the SPAN 101 & 102 courses due to the adoption of a new Program.
Tina Keller (Assistant Professor of TESOL Education) - to revise the TESOL/ESL minor, including the creation of two new courses-EDUC 401 and EDUC 402.
Jesse Kleingardner (Assistant Professor of Biochemistry) - for the preparation of new General Chemistry II course materials including PenCast supplementary examples using a SmartPen.
Anne Reeve (Professor of Chemistry) - to revise CHEM 342 Advanced Synthesis & Spectroscopy.
Rick Schaeffer (Professor of Chemistry) - to revise the laboratory portion and related course content for Chemical Analysis I and II.

Cross-Cultural Grant

Heather Dravk (Senior Lecturer in French) - to meet with key personnel and preview sites for a new course in Strasbourg, France.
Theresa Mannah-Blankson (Assistant Professor of Economics) - to meet with personnel and preview sites for the cross-cultural course in Ghana.
Nathan Skulstad (Assistant Professor of Film and Digital Media) – to prepare for a new course with a focus on multicultural identity as shaped by the physical and human landscape of Western Canada.

Scholarship Grant

Crystal Downing (Professor of English and Film Studies) – to study unpublished manuscripts and letters of Dorothy Sayers at the Wade Center in Illinois. Funded by the Riegsecker Endowment and jointly awarded by the Gender Concerns Committee.
Douglas Jacobsen (Professor of Church History and Theology) - to support collection of data for a book entitled Catholic Charismatic Renewal: History, Theology and Global Significance.
Scott Kieffer (Professor of Health and Exercise Physiology) – for research on the effects of CYP1A2 Polymorphism on Long Anaerobic Exercise Performance.
Abaz Kryemadhi (Associate Professor of Mathematical Sciences) - to work on time synchronization of two detector arrays placed at Messiah College and at the University of Tirana in Albania.
Erik Lindquist (Professor of Biology and Environmental Sciences) - to complete a manuscript on the phenology and behavior of the endangered Panamanian Golden Frog.
Bernardo Michael (Professor of History) - to examine archival holdings in Nepal related to the 18-19th century history of Far Western Nepal.
Obed Mfum-Mensah (Professor of Education) - to collect data for a new book titled: Religion, Market Mechanisms and Schooling in Sub-Saharan Africa.
David Pettegrew (Associate Professor of History) - to support cost of publication of materials related to excavations at an ancient harbor town in Cyprus.
Donald Pratt (Professor of Engineering) - to support travel to Cambodia for development of post-secondary technical training programs in the Banteay Meanchey province.
Gene Rohrbaugh (Professor of Computer Science) - to develop and deploy web-based tools to extract statistical characteristics from language corpora and to generate random texts with matching characteristics.
Scott Weaver (Associate Professor of Computer Science) – to collect information related to web development professionals' process of identifying, choosing, vetting, and implementing web technology.
Cynthia Wells (Associate Professor of Higher Education) – for a writing retreat to work on her book project addressing the distinct purposes of general education in Christian higher education.
Teaching Enhancement Grant

Leah Clarke (Associate Professor of Counseling) - to travel to Rwanda for a training course in multicultural trauma treatment.

Roseann Sachs (Professor of Chemistry) - for development of Livescribe Pencasts for use in Organic Chemistry I and II and General Chemistry.

Dwayne Safer (Assistant Professor of Finance) - to enhance finance courses through use of Bloomberg Professional software.

Randy Zwally (Senior Lecturer in Music) - to obtain music and information related to guitar instruction by attending the College Music Society conference and exhibit in Nashville.

Smith Scholar Interns (professor/student)

Ted Davis / Noah Perrin
Crystal Downing / Sarah Henry
Raeann Hamon / Verity Hwang
David Pettegrew / Jonathan Werthmuller
Gene Rohrbaugh / Hoang Nguyen